

There is no particular display policy. Glass cabinets and covered tables have been used to display the collection throughout the museum. The whole display has been personally designed and curated by Mr. Suraj with the help of his son Mr. Deepak.